SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER (02/06/2019)

World Communications Day

Dear Parishioners,

On Thursday we celebrated the Ascension of the Lord, the idea of Jesus ascending into heaven, body and soul, is the stuff of a Spielberg movie. Spielberg would have a field day with the special effect! It certainly tests our faith. Imagine: 'he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him from their sight.' The disciples witnessed this event. We, on the other hand, have to come to understand its significance through faith and reflection. There are, of course, the biblical texts which recount the event, albeit with some restraint. They are economical with the facts. The Gospel merely states. 'he withdrew from them and was carried up to heaven'.

We shouldn't get too preoccupied with the details but focus on the meeting. Firstly, the Ascension marks Jesus' entry into God's heavenly domain. Secondly, because Jesus was human, he goes where we all hope to follow. Finally, from where Jesus is now, we enjoy the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Later in our celebration, we will pray the Creed. We will say: 'we look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.' Even though we have not seen, yet we believe. This Feast celebrates life after death. It anticipates what salvation is. We live in the hope that where the head of the Church (Jesus) has gone before us, we the members, (the body of the Church) will follow.

There is a wonderful, hope-filled message. It is a message of empowerment and encouragement. The Ascension reminds us that pain, death and grief will not have the last word. We are called to be Easter people. We are invited to shine the light of hope into the darkness of the tomb. We do it when we console the bereaved, feed the hungry, clothe the naked and forgive those who have hurt us. We do it, above all, when we exercise charity. Amen.

Have Blessed Week
