Remembrance Sunday - 2020

Dear Parishioners,

Armistice Day is on 11 November and is also known as Remembrance day. It marks the day World War One ended, at 11 am on the 11th day of the 11th month, back in 1918. Nowadays, people remember those who were lost in the war by holding a two-minute silence and by wearing a red poppy. It is in honour of the courage they had to give their own lives for the nation.

Have a Blessed Week

Canon Niall

Live-Streaming Mass: Following government instructions and our Bishops' guidance, we have sadly and temporarily closed the Church from Thursday, 5th November 2020 however the Church will be open for private/individual prayers. It's our hope that we will be permitted to offer public mass in the near future. Hence we revive live-streaming mass every morning via the parish account in YouTube. The Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes in 2021 is planned for Sunday 25 – Friday 30 July. However, because of Covid-19 it is not possible to know yet whether a pilgrimage will be practical or in what form. Therefore, any decisions and announcements regarding the Diocesan Pilgrimage will be made in January.

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week: These words are from Pope Francis' latest encyclical, Fratelli Tutti, which has been hailed as an extraordinary example of thought leadership at a time where there is a real sense of despair on many sides, and an absence of social imagination about what might come next. It is a long document, but you can watch a superb video synopsis of its key points at www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

ST JOHN HENRY NEWMAN AND THE FIRST VATICAN COUNCIL: 2020 marks 150 years since the First Vatican Council and the solemn definition of papal primacy and infallibility. In this live streamed event Professor John Morrill, emeritus professor of history at the University of Cambridge, will explore the reaction to the Council in the writings of Newman and set it in today's context on Saturday 21st November from 11 am. To access go to www.sppilford.org.uk and click on live stream remote services.
